

Philip Mann Conductor

Composer's Comments

John Corigliano:

"Philip Mann is an extraordinarily gifted young conductor. I have seen and heard him prepare and perform a very difficult work of mine in Sydney, and cannot think of anyone who could have done a better job. He is efficient with his rehearsal time, and manages to get the best out of his musicians. What I found amazing is that his musical instincts were so fine, that he anticipated my comments, correcting things before I could even mention them. He is a true musician, a real leader, and will have a World Class career if given the opportunity."

Jennifer Higdon

"Maestro Philip Mann is one of the most gifted up and coming conductors working in the music field today. I'm honored to have a chance to have my works conducted by this talented artist"

Mark Adamo:

"With his keen ears, thorough musicianship, a clear sense of dramatic shape and a rehearsal manner as warm as it is exacting, Philip Mann has everything it takes to make a major conducting career."
