MUSIC REVIEWS: TISCHLER, MONTANE, KAPLAN VIRTUOSI WEEKEND

Weekend concerts highlight the experience of masters

January 24, 2011

"...faculty whiz Mark Kaplan did not disappoint. His violin sizzled and occasionally sighed as he played, with glorious aplomb, the "Carmen Fantasy" devised from Bizet's score by Pable de Sarasate.

To top matters off, Kaplan, Friedberg, the Violin Virtuosi, and the String Academy Chamber Orchestra joined for some beautiful Haydn, the Adagio from Concerto Number 1 in C Major and the whole of Concerto Number 2 in G Major. Kaplan led as well as played. The results were energetic, elegant and melting. One could not have asked for more."
